Notes from the Chair...

Happy New Year!

I hope you all had a wonderful holiday season! We're hard at work at CDS-SD planning events for the upcoming year. The CDS Annual Meeting is this month (January 28-30) and features Debbie McDonald speaking about her Olympic experience Saturday night and conducting a symposium on Saturday and Sunday. Yours truly was selected to be a demonstration rider (promise not to laugh!). There is also a fabulous silent auction that is worth the trip itself! If you're around, you can help us with the silent auction and get your volunteer credit for the year.

Speaking of volunteer credit, as mentioned in this space in the last newsletter (and in an e-mail you should have received), in order to qualify for CDS-SD end-of-year awards (which are quite nice!) members (or their designated "volunteer substitute") must volunteer at least once during the year. It doesn't have to be a lot – you can bring ice to a show, for instance, but (as they say) many hands make short work! The volunteer opportunity list appears in this newsletter. Check your calendar and call Kym Wright to get your pick! We really appreciate your help and enthusiastic participation!

We're looking forward to our annual awards banquet next month. Check out the newsletter for details. Did you win an award? Have a buddy who did? Or just want to come to a super-fun party? Come and join us and have a blast. (It's unbelievable how different we look out of our barn clothes! We clean up quite nicely, thank you.)

Our big-big event of the year, the Dressage Affaire, is coming up April 15-17. This is a not-to-be-missed show. Competitors, spectators and judges all commented on what a wonderful, well-run show it was last year. And this year will build on that success. Our show management team does an outstanding job making the Dressage Affaire a first-class experience for everyone. If you or your business is interested in being associated with a first-rate event, contact Kim Keenan about being a sponsor.

As always, you are welcome to contact any of our board members with questions or suggestions, and join us at any of our meetings. The more, the merrier!

Sincerely,
Kate Shuster

NEW!Volunteer Credit Program

Volunteers make the organization. It's your contributions that continue to make our chapter something to be proud of. Last season's The Dressage Affaire was a stunning example of what the donated time of a few can create.

This year, if you wish to be eligible for year-end awards, you must participate at some point during the year as a volunteer or provide a substitute in your name. Kym Wright is this season's Volunteer Coordinator. She's compiled a list of volunteer duties for our up-coming events. So sign-up early and get your pick! Get to know the members of your Board and meet other great volunteers.
